- Commission is calculated as a percentage of the approved home loan amount.
- The maximum commission payable is 0.40%.
- evo Homeloans Boland retains the remaining portion of the lender commission.

Tier Structure (Based on monthly application volume)

Commission percentage is determined by the number of home loan applications submitted per calendar month.

1 Application	0.20%
2 Applications	0.25%
3 Applications	0.30%
4 Applications	0.35%

- Tier level is determined by the total number of applications submitted within a single calendar month (first to last day of the month).
- The tier achieved in that month applies to all approved and registered bonds originating from applications submitted in that month.
- Tier status is locked based on submission month and does not change based on later performance.
